Our Country and Our Queen.

In other lands the bright sonbeam With richer glow is known, But none, however fair they seem, Are fairer than our own, And none a monarch can possess As on our throne is seen : Still then we'll pray to Heagen to bless

Our Country and our Queen.

In song let children hall ber name, For she out love bath won, By deeds of more endoring fame Than manhood's might hath done, And long as language can express, What's in the heart unseen, We'll pray to Heaven above, to bless Our Country and our Queen.

From lordly tower, and princely hall, And peacant's lowly home. Where er her getalle sway doth fall, Her heartfult praires come; Our mountain their delight express, Our cliffs and valleys green : And still we pray to Heaven to bless Our Country and our Queen.

Though great her glory and renown, Theme of her peoples' prayers, May she yet win a nobler Crown Than that on earth she wears; And long may future times confess The virtues we have seen ; But Heaven, in thy great love, still bless LETTER NO. 2. WEDNESDAY, Sept. 25th, 1861.

'To-day we had more time to examine the Exhibition Grounds and the various animals, articles, &c., on view. Provincial Agricultural Show, it must be pronounced a decided success. In cattle e I there is great competition-perhaps the greatest ever witnessed in the Province. The Durhams, Devons, Galloways and Herefords are largely represented. Mr. Stone, of Guelph shows several fine speclmens of Herefords; while two gentlemen alone, in the neighborhood of London have entered about seventy head of Devope: then with a large number of competitors from various sections of the country, who have entered from one to or six and ten head, will serve to give some e alight idea of the number of cattle upon at the ground.

In horses the display is not so great ; but the specimens appear good. In cerriage . horses we find the largest number of entries; some teams are finely niatched but others are widely spart. One gentleman, Mr. Bastedo of Hamilton, sold one span for $700.
